

REALLY LIVING CORPORATION IS PLEASED TO PRESENT,

the First Annual Really Jazz benefit concert to be held at the

Charles H. Wright Museum of African American History,
Saturday April 30, 2011 from 7PM – 11PM

“Really Jazz” is a Jazz benefit concert, being held by The Really Living Corporation. Really Living is a local non-profit organization, that is dedicated to helping the terminally and chronically ill, in the community. Free transportation to medical treatments, prescription assistance, and emergency monetary assistance are some of the services offered, by the organization. Founder, John Cook, who himself has been on dialysis for over 20 years, is an avid Jazz fan and has chosen an annual concert to be Really Living's signature event.

Each year, national as well as local up and coming artists, will be tapped to perform at the concert. The proceeds from sponsorship, and general ticket sales, will help Really Living continue their mission of aiding those in the community, who are uninsured or under insured.

With gratitude and appreciation for contributing to the success of this purposeful event, Really Living Corp. will host a private VIP/ meet & greet, cocktail/hors d'oeuvres reception, catered by Brown Bag Eatery. This exclusive segment of the evening will be held in the Museums' Emerging Artist Gallery. Sponsors / Donors and guests, will enjoy an intimate mix and mingle with jazz greats Walter Beasley and Lonnie Liston Smith along with native Detroiter, trumpet phenomenon Lin Rountree.

Immediately following the meet and greet, guests will be escorted to the beautiful General Motors Theater for a great evening of live Jazz, in the perfect setting for a party with a purpose. This exciting charitable event is an effort to raise funding for and awareness of an important cause and a local nonprofit organization working on behalf of chronically ill patients.
